NARRATIVE OF ACTS

This course enables students to undertake a careful study of the book of Acts from a historical, literary, and theological perspective. This will include detailed exegetical studies of particular passages, understanding the background of the book and discovering what it teaches about; living in Christian community, the mission of God in the world and the role of the Holy Spirit.

Mr. Allen McClymont

Joined OMF International in 2003 and from 2004-2012 he taught New Testament, Theology, and Greek at STM. He is convinced that there cannot be spiritual growth without the study of God's word and he is passionate about sharing the joy that comes though discovering new things through studying the New Testament. Prior to joining OMF he worked as an internal auditor in the banking industry in London. He is currently a PhD candidate at Kingston University in London where the focus of his research is the work of Protestant missionaries in the new villages of peninsula Malaysia.

Closing Date: 1th February 2017
Your kind donation of a minimum of RM300 to fund part of this course is much appreciated.
