

English TEE Public Lecture: SONGS FOR TROUBLED TIMES

Christians often mention the Psalms as their favourite part of the Old Testament. Indeed, in some church traditions a psalm is read most weeks during service. Yet there is a relative neglect of the darker psalms. How should we read and use them as Christians, in light of Christ? In this public lecture I will introduce the Psalter as a whole, then I will give some tips on how to read psalms today. I will finish with a sample sermon on one of the songs for troubled times.

Dr Peter Lau is a trained medical practitioner who holds an MDiv from the Sydney Missionary and Bible College and a PhD from the University of Sydney. He has been lecturing at Seminari Theoloji Malaysia since 2010. Dr Lau is married to Kathryn and they have three children - Zachary, Jeremy and Sophie.
