About the course:

Aims to help students answer three key questions:

- What is God doing in the world?
- What am I called to do to be part of His work?
- How am I to go about discerning my calling?

Through lectures, small group interaction and personal reflection, this course will help participants better understand the context of the world of work today, the Bible’s teaching on work and vocation, what one has been called to do to be part of God’s purposes.

Closing date for enrollment:

28 June 2016 (two weeks before class commences)

Rev Dr Tan Soo Inn is the director of Graceworks, a ministry committed to promoting spiritual friendship in church and society. He has a BDS from the University of Singapore, a ThM (NT) from Regent College, and a DMin from Fuller seminary. He has served as the lead pastor of two churches and as the executive leader of a major para-church ministry. His passions include connecting the Word of God to the struggles of daily life, and the mentoring of emerging leaders. He wants to do fresh thinking on the meaning of discipleship and what it means for the 21st century.
