COURSE DESCRIPTION
Based on the premise that Christian leadership is first and last spiritual leadership, the course will attempt to explore the meaning and implication of Christians being called to serve in various capacities as God’s under-shepherds and to enable students to become obedient Spirit-filled servants of God.

Ministry is seen as our response to God’s love and mercies and joining Him who is already at work in our churches and in the world. It is the intention of the course to help students appropriate a deeper insight into the acts of God in our midst so that students will undertake their ministries as a sacred calling.
