Rev Dr Tan Jin Huat:

Rev Dr Tan Jin Huat, is an Anglican minister, teaches Homiletics, New Testament and Malaysian Church History. Formerly lectured at Seminari Theoloji Malaysia. He studied Theology at Trinity College, Bristol, the London School of Theology, the University of Aberdeen, and the Oxford Centre of Mission Studies/University of Wales. Among his publications are 'Preacher, Prepare Yourself', 'Brookes, the British and Christianity in Sarawak', and 'Planting an Indigenous Church: The Case of the Borneo Evangelical Mission.'

Course Description:

This course is designed to build upon the basic foundation in homiletics.

It will examine the principles of hermeneutics and various methods of interpretation, and how these apply to the task of sermon preparation.

Particular attention will be given to the interpretation and appropriate application of the Gospels and Epistles. Students will be involved in hands-on practice of exegesis, and sermon preparation and delivery on selected texts.

Course Objectives The course is designed to ...

1. Involve the student to explore the various interpretational approaches to the New Testament and their relevance to homiletics.
2. Involve the student to engage in hands-on exegetical explorations into a sampling of New Testament texts, particularly the Gospels and the Epistles.
3. Enable the student to formulate homiletical options to any New Testament text/passage.

Closing Date: 5th September 2017
