Leadership in Intercultural Contexts

Course Description

This course explores how leadership dynamics in cross-cultural ministry and organizational contexts are impacted by cultural differences. Using biblical and cultural frameworks, it challenges students to reflect and rethink on their practices when interacting with the culturally different and leading in multi-cultural contexts. It facilitates growth in the knowledge, competencies and skills required for effective interactions across cultural boundaries, leveraging on cultural diversity for personal life and for God's mission.

Lecturer

Rev Dr Chan Nam Chen

Executive Director of AsiaCMS.

Dr Chan holds a PhD in Intercultural Studies from Fuller Theological Seminary, focusing on Missions and Leadership in Cross-cultural situations. He has been in full-time ministry for over thirty years as a cross-cultural church planter, trainer and pastor. He has a passion to see churches planted; pastors, leaders and churches rising to their God-given commission; and a heart for raising leaders in mission.
