

Christian Theology 1 : Intro to Theology & Doctrine of God

The Course:

Everyone who thinks about God is already a theologian, but the course begins by asking why and how to study theology, and we reflect upon what kind of person (head, hands and heart) we should be. The course focuses on three subjects—the Bible's uniqueness and usefulness, God's character and works in creation and providence, and God as Trinity (Father, Son and Spirit).

Classes will be a mixture of lectures, discussion groups and assignments. As we study, we integrate our thinking, apply it to real life Christian ministry, and pray that we will all know both God and ourselves better.

The Lecturer:

Rev Paul Thompson met his Malaysian wife, Yu Li, at Oak Hill seminary in London eighteen years ago. After many years in church ministry, Paul engaged in further study, receiving a master's degree in theology from Union School of Theology and Chester University. God willing, he hopes to conclude his PhD into Pauline Slavery in 2021. Afterwards, Paul and Yu Li plan to move to Malaysia with OMF for both the gospel and the food! x

Paul is passionate about training church leaders for biblical ministry in Malaysia. Our theology, what we know and understand of God, is always at the centre of why we do what we do. The Bible is our source, the gospel of Jesus Christ our motivation, and we pray for the Spirit to empower our efforts to transform lives for God's glory. Paul also enjoys good food, playing the Dominion strategy board game, and is a half-hearted fan of Liverpool
