The Epistle of James: The Voice of the Lord's Brother?

4 cr hours

Online Class : Zoom Platform

Date : Feb 6-8, 13-15 & 20-22

Time : Thu-Sat 7.30pm - 10.30pm

Course Description

The course will deal with historical and theological problems related to the letter of James that leads the collection of non-Pauline letters ("Catholic Epistles") in the New Testament canon. As a letter sent from Jerusalem to the "Twelve tribes in dispersion", the short text enables us to get a glimpse of the vitality and the challenges of groups of adherents of Jesus Christ in the earliest period of emerging Christianity. Living in the diaspora, they count themselves to being part of the people of Israel and seek to follow the will of God as expressed in the Jewish law. At the same time, they found their faith, as does the letter writer, in "God and the Lord Jesus Christ" (see Jas 1:1; 2:1). The aim of the letter is to strengthen the addressees in their faith, to counsel them in their hardships and to correct them in their way of life, in particular with regard to their dealing with the poor and helpless among them.
